

Call for Abstracts

Southern Pain Society Annual Meeting

October 7-9, 2022

1. We will welcome abstracts on patient evaluation, risk stratification, outcomes of interventional treatments, psychosocial factors in pain, pain education, research, case studies, etc.
2. Abstracts will be accepted from professionals including learners.
3. Abstracts will also be accepted from industry and the primary author must be a non-industry clinician.
4. The abstract text must be limited to 300 words.
5. The abstract must contain the following headers: Objective, Methods, Results, Conclusion, Key Words (limit 5) and Summary.
6. The author(s) must have, and state, a working hypothesis to be tested, provide information to advance the science/practice with data obtained, with rare exceptions, from more than an 'n' of 1, provide an interpretation of results that support or refute the working hypothesis and/or existing knowledge and 2-3 key references on the topic addressed.
7. The full name, address and institution of the primary author must be included. If you are a learner, please indicate your status (i.e. undergrad, graduate student, resident, etc.).
8. No figures or tables should be included in the abstract.
9. The abstract must be original work not previously published.
10. The abstract deadline is September 15, 2022.
11. All submitters will be notified by September 30, 2022.
12. Approval of an abstract constitutes the commitment of at least one author to be present.
13. There is no cost for presenting a poster but the presenter must register, and pay the appropriate registration fee. The poster session is scheduled on Saturday, October 8, 2022 from 5 – 6 pm.
14. The approved abstracts will be printed in the syllabus.
15. Awards may be offered to non - industry poster presenters.

16. The main presenter of each poster will receive free registration for the New Orleans meeting in October 2023.

Please send your abstract as an email attachment in an 8 ½ x 11 Word document, Times New Roman, font size 10 to info@southernpainsociety.org