Southern Pain Society
37th Annual Meeting
September 29 - October 1, 2023

This conference will address the disparities in pain management and the unequal burden of care based upon location, education and access across the continuum of primary and specialty care including pharmacological, non-pharmacological and interventional modalities.

The curriculum is intended for participants with fundamental as well as advanced knowledge of chronic pain. The focus of the meeting will cover the following clinical topics: Pharmacological treatments and interventional management of headaches, peripheral nerve pain, pelvic pain, geriatrics, substance use disorder, spinal surgery, trigeminal neuralgia and non-operative intraarticular pain treatment.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this live activity, participants should be able to:

1. Discuss the disparities and unequal burden of chronic pain management related to urban, academic, rural, and hard-to-reach settings, as well as education literacy.
2. Identify psychotropic and psychedelic medications that affect nociceptive processing and may have a role in pain management.
3. Outline the etiology, diagnosis, medical, and physical therapy management of patients with pelvic pain.
4. Define the non-operative options for intraarticular pain treatment.
5. Review spinal surgery referrals and gain a better understanding of when to perform a laminectomy and/or a spinal fusion, as well as when to perform spinal cord stimulation.

LEARNING OUTCOME

Participants of this conference will assess a gain in knowledge related to contemporary treatment modalities as well as the complex impact that health care disparities has on pain management.

THE SOUTHERN PAIN SOCIETY - join and save!

The Southern Pain Society (SPS) was established in 1986. The Southern Pain Society's mission is to serve people with pain by advancing research and treatment and to increase the knowledge and skill of the regional professional community.

Visit www.southernpainsociety.org to join and take advantage of the discounted registration fee.

POSTER PRESENTATIONS

Each year, we host a poster session where professionals and learners can showcase their research and projects. Posters can be clinically or research oriented. Please see the SPS website at www.southernpainsociety.org for details on submission.

Abstracts are due by September 1, 2023
